

HAMILTON
PHILHARMONIC
ORCHESTRA

Where in the World is Figaro?!

The Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra Family Scavenger Hunt

Use the coordinates below on Google Maps to search the world for these Barber of Seville Locations

<https://www.google.com/maps>

- Famous for its oranges and Flamenco dancing, you can find the city where the opera is set at these coordinates 37°23'43.9"N 5°59'07.0"W
- If Figaro was still barbering, he might be working at the world's oldest barbershop
51°30'21.6"N 0°08'19.5"W
- Many of the characters in the Barber of Seville use disguises throughout the opera. If you were looking for a good disguise, you might find one here in Germany's largest costume design house
52°29'28.9"N 13°18'17.5"E
- Ah, but what about Rosina and the Count? Perhaps they would like to demonstrate their love with a lock?
48°51'30.7"N 2°20'15.1"E
- There's nothing like a serenade! The Big Easy has some of the most famous of these in the world. Find our favourite here: 29°57'26.0"N 90°03'57.7"W
- The Barber of Seville was performed in America for the first time at the Park Theatre. What type of building now stands on this site? 40°42'41.0"N 74°00'27.6"W